

Business Skills Training

Two Spires Training and Marketing Ltd. is a small training organisation based in Enniskillen, it operates both North and South of the border and has recently secured work delivering courses on job ready programmes.

In the future, Two Spires intends to use our qualifications for corporate business in a prestigious company in Dublin to give their bespoke management team leader training an accredited qualification.

This is what Kathryn Hugues, Director of Two Spires Training and Marketing Ltd. has to say about the Open College Network Northern Ireland:

Why do you use OCN NI?

The Open College Network NI is a well renowned, reputable organisation that provides bite sized courses that can apply to any organization.

What is the benefit of using OCN NI?

There is good support and back up from the OCN NI and it has clear guidelines and help on maintaining the best training possible.

What are the benefits to students?

One of the main benefits to students is that modules can be tailored according to their needs and they can be delivered over an agreed period of time.

What qualifications do you use?

Level 1 and 2